

SCRA COUNCIL OF EDUCATION MINI-GRANTS

2016 CALL FOR APPLICATIONS

WHO: SCRA members and undergraduate/graduate programs.

WHAT: SCRA will provide funding (up to $1,250) to support initiatives aligned with the mission and vision of the Council for Education. The mission of the Council of Education Programs is to support and advocate excellence and visibility in education in community research and action. Funding priorities include:

- Cross-program collaboration between two or more undergraduate or graduate programs. Grant criteria include a collaborative or international exchange between two or more undergraduate/graduate programs. Applications can include proposals to support the development of new courses, faculty/student exchange programs, leveraging program strengths through co-sponsored webinars or similar types of joint initiatives.
- Recruitment initiatives and programming. Applications can include proposals to support participation at graduate fairs, dissemination of SCRA materials, program registration, and visitations for potential graduate students.
- New programs. Applications can include proposals to support small-scale programming, consultation, and internal evaluation.

WHERE: SCRA will provide funding to undergraduate/graduate programs in the United States and Internationally. International applicants are strongly encouraged to apply.

WHEN: This is a time-sensitive mini grant, applicants should submit applications no later than May 30, 2016, 11:59 EST. Applicants will receive decisions in July.

WHY: SCRA wants to improve opportunities for programming and training in community psychology and promote the inclusion and expansion of community psychology to the national and international context.

HOW: Complete the online application form by May 30th, 2015.

*Funding can support initiatives outside the three main funding priorities.
